Case No.: 12-cv-00664 YGR

ORDER RE: ADMINISTRATIVE MOTIONS TO SEAL

Re: Dkt. Nos. 166, 175, 184, 191

13 In a separate order concurrently filed, the Court resolves Plaintiffs' motion for class
14 certification. In connection with that motion, the parties filed four administrative motions to seal, 15 pursuant to this Court's Civil Local Rule 79-5. The parties subsequently filed a joint submission of 16 table identifying documents sought to be filed (Dkt. No. 200), which narrowed certain requests and 17 withdrew others. This Order resolves the administrative motions to seal.

18 The public holds a presumptive right of access to public records, including pretrial filings in 19 civil cases. See Kamakana v. City & Cnty. of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172, 1178-79 (9th Cir. 2006); In 20 re Midland Nat. Life Ins. Co. Annuity Sales Practices Litig., 686 F.3d 1115, 1119 (9th Cir. 2012).
21 In the context of information proffered in support of dispositive motions or at trial, only a
22 continuing, compelling reason will justify sealing the information or keeping it under seal. See In 23 re Midland, 686 F.3d at 1119. However, "the usual presumption of the public's right to access does 24 not apply to non-dispositive motions with the same strength it applies to dispositive motions."
25 Dugan v. Lloyds TSB Bank, PLC, 2013 WL 1435223, at *1 (N.D. Cal. Apr. 9, 2013) (citing In re
26 Midland, 686 F.3d at 1119). In the context of non-dispositive motions, the party seeking to place
27 and keep information under seal need only make a showing of good cause. See id. at *1-2. "There 28 may be 'good cause' to seal records that are privileged, contain trade secrets, contain confidential

research, development or commercial information, or if disclosure of the information might harm a litigant's competitive standing." Id. at *2.

The Court finds that the parties' sealing requests as refined in their joint submission are appropriate and narrowly tailored. Accordingly, the motions are all GRANTED IN PART AND DENIED IN PART. The parties shall file all documents sought to be sealed in redacted form consistent with their joint submission (see Dkt. No. 200).

This Order terminates Docket Numbers 166, 175, 184, 191.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
